

“Simply put, the Great Lakes are our shared treasure, a common wealth we dare not take for granted. It is frightening to imagine the damage an oil spill would have on our Northern Michigan economy. To protect the public interest, we must decommission this pipeline, Line 5, for now and for future generations.”

– Justin Rashid, co-owner of American Spoon

